ON THE HOME FRONT

Gary Colley

Paul wrote, "Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep" (Rom.12:15). The brethren meeting at Getwell certainly believe in practicing what Paul by inspiration wrote in this passage! They have shown by their works, many times, that they do weep with those that weep, and rejoice with those who rejoice!

Maggie and I have been the recipients of this love and sympathy of late! The good brethren have rejoiced with us in our 60th wedding anniversary with many cards and well wishes. We have treasured each one of these, and will for time to come.

Also, they have wept with us as we wept in the passing of my brother, Robert L. Colley, on September 11, 2015. We went to speak at his memorial service on Sunday, September 13, assisted by our son Glenn. We offer a great word of thanks for the food, cards, prayers, and words of encouragement given from our Getwell brethren in Christ. The brethren in Round Rock, TX (where he and his wife, Ann, lived) were also abounding in their care and sympathy. No one fully knows what all of this means until they have had a loved one pass through the valley of the shadow of death. From the bottom of our hearts we say THANK YOU!

Other Designations for the People of God

We noticed last week that the pre-eminent name for the individual people of God today is the name "Christian." It was prophesied by Isaiah 700 years before it was fulfilled in Acts 11:26! No other name is to be worn pre-eminently today, even in a hyphenated sense. The name "Christian" is for individuals, not the church. It is authorized by God and is the Scriptural designation for God's people in this age. The term "Christian" shows our relationship to Christ, and in wearing this name we honor Christ, and glorify God (I Pet. 4:16). Though this name is the pre-eminent name, other designations are used by the Holy Spirit to suggest different relationships which Christians have toward each other, toward God, and toward Christ. Notice some of these:

1. "BELIEVER" – This suggests the faith of the Christian in Christ (Acts 4:32).
2. "SAINT" – This is not applied to dead people in the Bible! It suggests the followers of Christ are separated from the world and dedicated to holy service (Acts 9:13).

3. "PRIEST" – Applied to all Christians, because all Christians are to "offer up spiritual sacrifices (worship) acceptable to God by Jesus Christ" (I Pet. 2:5 Jn. 4:24; Acts 2:42).
4. "DISCIPLE" – This term suggests that Christians are followers, learners, or students (Acts 9:25, 28).
5. "BRETHREN" – This shows our mutual relationship one with another "in Christ" or His church (Acts 9:30; Mt. 23:8).
6. "CHILDREN" – Shows that God is our Father (Gal. 3:26; Rom. 8: 17).
7. "SERVANTS" – Suggesting that Christ is our Master and Lord (Eph. 6:6).

These and other terms and phrases are found in the Holy Scriptures to show the relationship which we sustain to God and Christ, the church and the world, and to one another. But again, the pre-eminent name to designate the followers of Christ is the God-given name "Christian."
