Yes , we are interested in the happiness of life, the use of our abilities, and the mercy of the Lord. We believe that the Bible gives the answer to all of these interests and desires. What a privilege it is to know that we can cast our cares on Him Who is able to bear our burdens (I Pet. 5:7). He it is who invites all to come to Him for these blessings! You can read about His invitation, the way to rid yourself of the heavy burden of sin, and for the rest one needs in Matthew 11:28-30.

So many people fail to live up to their potential in life due to failing to apply themselves to labor, whether in this world or in the life of spirituality. The lazy person will not find the success he desires when he refuses to "put his shoulder to the wheel," or to "roll up his sleeves" for the job. Success comes to those who prepare themselves and are willing to take on the offered task. Opportunity usually comes to those who are willing to pay the price of years of preparation. The Bible warns, "Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not (Gal. 6:7-9). Those who are willing to "sow" are also those who will know the pleasure of "reaping." This Bible principle certainly applies to all in this world, and especially to those who are looking forward to going to Heaven.

Where in the Bible Will I Find . . .

The Literal Indwelling of the Holy Spirit?

One may search for a lifetime and not find in the Bible the teaching of the literal indwelling of the Holy Spirit in the physical body of the Christian. Some assert that He does dwell in them, somewhat like they assert that miracles happen today, but without proof from the Bible. Superstition and subjectivism evidently have caused the confusion and questions concerning the direct working of the Holy Spirit in our lives. The Bible does state the FACT that God, Christ, and the Holy Spirit dwell within the penitent, obedient Christian but never says the way is directly, literally, or personally (II Cor. 6:16; Eph. 3:17; I Cor. 3:16). We do not question the FACT that in some manner the Holy Spirit dwells within the Christian but rather the HOW of the Holy Spirit's indwelling. The Bible answers that the indwelling of Deity in the Christian is by faith (Eph. 3:17). It also states that this faith comes by hearing the Word of God (Rom. 10:17). Hence we can learn that God, Christ, and the Holy Spirit dwell in the Christian, not directly, literally, or personally, but through the Word of God. This representative indwelling, through the medium or agency of God's Word, directs all Christians alike in the "one faith" (Eph. 4:1-6). The Holy Spirit's special part in the scheme of redemption was to be the revelator (Jn. 16:13). This He did perfectly in the Word and needs not to repeat His work (Jas. 1:25; Eph. 6:18). If any of the Godhead spoke to us directly today, they would not speak anything differently from what is revealed in the Word! If the apostles or an angel spoke directly today, it could be no different from that which is written, without rendering themselves "accursed" (Gal. 1:8-9). The Bible commands and inspiration teaches us how to "be filled with the Spirit" (Eph. 5:18). It explains itself by saying, "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom" (Col. 3:16). Inspired Peter states what the Christian's first lesson should be: "Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but HOLY MEN OF GOD SPAKE AS THEY WERE MOVED BY THE HOLY GHOST" (II Pet. 1:20-21). From these facts we should learn that the Holy Spirit abides in us, as the Word of God abides in us and directs our lives. Does the Word of the Spirit abide in you? Obey today!

RON'S REMINDERS

Christ gave us the great commission to go into all the world and preach the gospel. One way we here at Getwell attempt this task is by sending THE SPIRITUAL SWORD throughout the world. Currently, we are sending the journal to 94 countries and all 50 states. Below is a list of the countries that receive the journal.
