ON THE HOME FRONT

Gary Colley

It is good to be home from our Gospel meeting in Anna, Illinois. This was our fifth meeting to be in fellowship with these good brethren in the Lord's work. We always enjoy our association with these brethren, their elders, and preacher, R. W. McAlister. But we are sorry that someone shared with us a health difficulty, causing us to have several days of inactivity. However, with the good help of the Father and of our good doctor, we are able to be back in the work. Our thanks is especially given to brothers Pat Phillips and Ron Wallace for their help in the classes and the pulpit. We hope that others who have had illness are also doing better!

Many today pay no attention or give respect to the Bible's statements about using God's name in vain. They ignore passages such as Exodus 20, where the command of God is given, "Ye shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain, for the Lord will not hold him guiltless who takes His name in vain." It is not unusual today to hear God's name used in vain by many individuals, young and old, on TV, radio, in magazines, in schools, and on the computer with the abbreviation OMG. It is wrong to use God's name in vain as a curse word! Actually, there are only two ways to use God's name: one is in reverence and the other in vain! How is your mind trained to use the name of God? He is holy, sovereign of Heaven and earth, unchangeable, good, kind, loving, patient, faithful, omniscient, omnipotent, omnipresent, merciful, and forgiving. Isaiah exhorts, "Seek ye Jehovah while he may be found; call ye upon him while he is near: let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto Jehovah, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon" (Isa. 55:6-7).

The Importance of the Church of Christ?

This important question deserves more of the attention of thinking individuals than many are willing to give. If that which the Bible declares to be important is not important, then nothing is important in the world, and we should not search for Truth even for a moment. Yet Jesus said Truth is our hope (Jn. 8:31-32). If it can be determined that eternal salvation is highly important, then nothing should have more of our interest than the Divine institution called the church of Christ (Rom. 16:16). Since every person has an eternal soul given by God, and every person shall give an account, the soul is of utmost value (Matt. 10:28; 16:26). The institution in which our soul can be saved, according to the Bible, is then of utmost significance. We note from the Bible that the church of Christ:

Has a Divine Architect (Eph. 3:10-11).

Had a Divine Builder (Matt. 16:18).

Has a Divine Foundation (I Cor. 3:11).

Had a Divine Purchase Price (Acts 20:28).

Has a Divine Head (Eph. 1:22-23; Col. 1:18).

Has a Divine Law (Jas. 1:25; Rom. 8:1-2;
Gal. 1:8-9).

Has a Divine Name (Acts 4:12; Phil. 2:9;
I Cor. 1:10-12).

Has a Divine Purpose (Matt. 28:18-20;
Eph. 3:21).

Has a Divine Destiny (Jn. 14:1-6;
Eph. 5:25-27).

If these do not appeal to our souls, something is wrong with our hearts (Prov. 4:23; 23:7). Confusing human doctrines have caused people not to study and, therefore, not to know. When people are unenlightened by the Gospel, they are alienated from God, and their minds are darkened (Eph. 4:17-19). Even those who once have been enlightened by and obedient to the Gospel may cease to let the Word live in them, turning back to the worldly practices they did before obeying the Gospel and entering the church of Christ (Hos. 4:6; II Pet. 2:20-22). Ignorance can even cause the wrong to seem right! (Jn. 16:2). All men are dependent on the Word of God to guide them into the narrow Way and toward the celestial city of Heaven (Jer. 10:23; Prov. 14:12; Matt. 15:13-14). We urge every soul to study and obey the Truth today (II Cor. 6:2).
