Several of our members at Getwell have suffered health problems in recent weeks. We know that, as long as we are in this body, all will not be without difficulty (Job 14:1). But isn't it wonderful to be able to pray to the Father for help and comfort? To know that He will never leave us nor forsake us is certainly a sustaining help for the Christian! We do pray that our fellow members in the body of Christ will soon be restored to their desired health. Jesus said, "I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work" (Jn. 9:4). Let us work while we can.

Christians were charged in the first Century with many damaging accusations of which they were not guilty! They were charged with being drunk on the notable day of Pentecost (Acts 2:13). For the haters of Christianity, their charges came fast and furious. This is said to be one reason that the doors and windows were open during their worship (Acts 20:7-9) so that the charges might be seen to be false! Paul wrote to Timothy concerning how older men and older women should be treated. He also, by inspiration, showed how the younger women were to be treated. These passages should not be overlooked today! He said, "Rebuke not an elder, but intreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren; The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity" (I Tim. 5:1-2). These are guards which would prevent wrong motives and treatment of any member of the church of Christ. We should speak to elders as we would speak to our father, not harshly but kindly and lovingly. We are to treat younger men as we would those in our same family. Older women are to be treated with the respect we would exercise to our mother. And to the younger women, let us treat them as our sisters, with purity! Good instructions!

RON'S REMINDERS

Mary Siler Hardwick

1923-2017

Last week, we said farewell to a sweet, gentle Christian lady. “Miss Mary” was the wife of W. T. Hardwick, one of our elders. Miss Mary’s first husband, Travis Siler, was also an elder at Getwell. I think it speaks volumes that Miss Mary was the wife of two elders. Travis and Mary Siler came to Getwell in the mid 50s. Their two daughters, Jan and Kay, were born at Getwell. Travis and Mary had a successful and happy marriage until his death in 1995. In 2003, Mary married W. T. Hardwick, who had lost his wife earlier. They also had a happy and successful marriage. In many ways, Miss Mary was my mentor. I learned people skills and patience working side by side with her in the Bible school department. I never saw her become impatient with others, and she always exhibited an attitude of cooperation and a love for the children and for Jesus Christ. This article hardly does Miss Mary justice, but it is my feeble attempt to pay homage and tribute to this fine lady. Our sympathy goes out to the Hardwick and Siler families.
