My Goodbye to Getwell

I cannot explain enough just how much the past two and half years have meant to me. I still remember the very first time that I stepped foot inside the building here at Getwell. I was a first year student at MSOP, attending the Spiritual Sword Lectureship. As soon as I stepped in the doors, I was overwhelmed by the beauty of the building. I realize that the building is not what makes a congregation, but before I met a single member, I was amazed by the design. I had been inside church buildings in Western Kentucky that might have held 100 people, so coming to a 750 seat building was surreal. The theater style seats were also something to which I was not accustomed. I could just imagine what the building would look like when it was filled with Christians.

The first member of the Getwell church of Christ that I met was Wanda Barringer. She did such a great job in the coffee room during the lectureship. The love and hospitality that radiated from Wanda Barringer was indicative of the entire Getwell congregation.

I was a second year student at MSOP when we heard that brother Colley would be resigning. The students were presented with the opportunity to fill in on a rotation, and I knew that I had to get my name on that list. I had become infatuated with the idea of standing in the pulpit at Getwell, even if it was just the one time. One time turned into two, then three, then I was hired to be the eighth minister of the Getwell church of Christ. If you had told me two years prior that I would be so blessed to be here, I would not have believed you.

We have been through a lot in our brief time together. It is always a horrible thing to see division in the Lord's church. From what I saw through the entire ordeal, the nucleus of this congregation is strong, no matter what adversity it may face. A global pandemic also tried to slow us down, but it was unable.

I am eternally grateful for the great joy that it has been to work with the Getwell church of Christ these last two and half years. I count myself so fortunate to have had the opportunity to get to know each of you. All of you have taught me valuable lessons that I will use the rest of my life. Thank you all so much for all that you have done for me.
