ON THE HOME FRONT

If you are missing services at Getwell, you are missing an opportunity to worship our God and to grow spiritual and be encouraged by the songs we sing and the love of Jesus exhibited by your brothers and sisters in Christ. Michael Wyatt is doing an excellent job presenting lessons from God's Word. The Wednesday night class is indeed edifying and spiritually educational to aid in your spiritual growth. This is not because of the teacher which is "yours truly" but the pertinent comments made by the members of the class specially William Hill, Wynona Murray and Stanley Wallace. Stanley's comments were truly appreciated regarding the purpose and importance of the corner stone. Stanley is a structural engineer and explained the corner stone in physical buildings Thus we draw the comparison to Jesus Christ being the corner stone of our faith as pointed out in Mark 12:10. We are currently finishing our study of Mark and will be proceeding to a study of Luke next. I guarantee that the time spent studying God's Word will give you a spiritual boost in the middle of the week and social distancing is no problem.

The current issue of the Spiritual Sword, "Bible Baptism - A Study Guide" is taking off like gangbusters and is ideal for outreach to the lost and to those who have a misconception concerning baptism.

We received a call from a brother in Texas who was amazed that our small congregation is able to publish and distribute a journal such as the Spiritual Sword throughout the world. We are reminded by the exhortation found in Ephesians 3:20 "Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think according to the power that worketh in us." On a side note a congregation in West Virginia recently ordered 500 copies of the current issue to be used for personal work.

Until next week.

RON'S REMINDERS

Who Is at the Controls?

*If life is a flight through time,
who is in the cockpit?*

*If life is a joyride,
who is behind the wheel?*

*If life is a voyage,
who is at the helm?*

Decisions determine direction (Joshua 24:15). Direction determines destiny (Matthew 7:13-14). Will we ascend or descend at the judgment? It depends on who makes our decisions.

ME

Invictus is commonly quoted by valedictorians at high school graduations across America. It sums up the philosophy of many youth as they begin their adult lives. It was written by William Ernest Henley, an early humanist who was crippled since his childhood in Gloucester, England. His "Master-of-my-fate-captain-of-mysoul" philosophy was only a little ahead of its time.

*Out of the night that covers me,
Black as the Pit from pole to pole,
I thank whatever gods may be
For my unconquerable soul.
In the fell clutch of circumstance
I have not winced nor cried aloud.
Under the bludgeoning of chance
My head is bloody, but unbowed. . . .
It matters not how strait the gate.
How charged with punishments the scroll,
I am the master of my fate;
I am the captain of my soul.*

Frank Sinatra's song "I Did It My Way" is often requested at funerals. From the beginning of adult life to the end of it, many say, "I make my own choices — nobody tells me what to do."

Bible examples abound of those who had self on life's throne. Note the personal pronouns of a certain rich man:

What shall I do, since I have no room to store my crops? So he said, "I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build greater, and there I will store all my crops and my goods. And I will say to my soul, 'Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years; take your ease; eat, drink, and be merry' " (Luke 12:17-19).

God called him a fool (Luke 12:20). Another rich man had the "me" philosophy and awoke in torments (Luke 16:23).

Self-will took Nebuchadnezzar from his throne (Daniel 4:30-37) and kept Moses from Canaan (Numbers 20:8-12). Felix trembled at the thought of giving control to Christ (Acts 24:25); Agrippa came close to handing over the reins, but not close enough (Acts 26:28). The prodigal is not the only young man who has let such thinking take him to the far country and into the pigpen of sin (Luke 15:11-32).

We will never be able to pull ourselves from the mire into which sin has sunk us. The man who says he is in control of his life is mistaken. The devil allows him to think so, but serving self is sacrificing at Satan's altar. There are no free men in sin's death camp (Romans 6:17, 23).

When we were young, our fathers may have allowed us to "drive" in the driveway while sitting in their laps. We felt we were in control, but if the car veered, Dad quickly took over. Many are sitting in Satan's lap, "steering" their lives to a lake of fire. "Me" is not a safe guide for life (Proverbs 14:12; Jeremiah 10:23).

MEN

Others allow public opinion to make their decisions. How many should make Saul's confession? "I have sinned, for I have transgressed the commandment of the Lord, and your words, because I feared the people and obeyed their voice" (1 Samuel 15:24).

Adam gave in to Eve and let forbidden fruit get him into a jam (Genesis 3:6). Abraham feared Abimelech enough to tell a lie (Genesis 20:11). Aaron made a golden calf at public demand (Exodus 32:21-24).

In the New Testament, Pilate wanted to set Jesus free, but he was too much of a people-pleasing politician to stand by his decision (Matthew 27:2-26). Many rulers believed on Jesus but would not confess Him, "for they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God" (John 12:42-43; cf. 5:44). Even Barnabas gave in to peer pressure and disassociated himself from Gentiles (Galatians 2:13).

We must strongly resist the pressure to conform to the world's mold (Romans 12:1-2). Evil companions are bad for good morals (1 Corinthians 15:33), so we should stay away from them as much as possible (1 Thessalonians 5:22). Pitching tents toward Sodom has left behind the smoking ruins of many families (Genesis 13:12; 14:12; 19:16, 24, 26, 31-36). Any who love the opinions of father, mother, wife, children, brothers, or sisters more than Christ, cannot be His disciple (Luke 14:26; cf. 18:29-30). Men do not have a safe guideline for crossing the chasm that divides earth and eternity (Matthew 7:13-14).

MESSIAH

A third choice is to allow Christ to rule life. He stands knocking at the door of every heart (Revelation 3:20), but He will never force entry (cf. Luke 24:28-29). He drafts no soldiers, and presents no subpoenas for His mediatorship (Matthew 22:37; 2 Corinthians 5:14). One who comes to Jesus must renounce all (Revelation 12:11), take up his cross, and follow as closely as he can in the Master's steps (Luke 14:26-27; 1 Peter 2:21-22).

The choice is difficult, but it is never regretted (2 Corinthians 7:10). His truth sets us free (John 8:32); His life is abundant (John 10:10); His rule is not burdensome (1 John 5:3). Joshua gave God his life (Joshua 24:15) and was never disappointed. Paul gave Christ his heart and never looked back (Acts 9; 2 Timothy 4:6-8; cf. Luke 9:62).

The truth is, "No servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other" (Luke 16:13).
