ON THE HOME FRONT

This past Saturday there was a reception orchestrated by our three and their spouses in honor of our 40th wedding anniversary. On a personal level Karen and I would like to thank our children and our friends who attended this reception. To us it was a very memorable afternoon and event.

On June 19th in our country we celebrated Father's Day honoring the fathers in our lives. Apart from the many ugly ties that were given there was honor and love shown toward our fathers. Stanley and I were blessed with a good father who provided for us. We as Christians are blessed with a loving, caring Father who provides our needs. He is the Father who gave us to ultimate gift His son Jesus (John 3:16). We are reminded in Romans 8:28 "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to his purpose." If you still have a living father, take a moment and tell him thank you and that you love him. Stanley's and my dad has passed and I wish I had told him more often thank-you and how we loved him. Be sure every day to express these thoughts to your Heavenly father.

This past Sunday we were recipients of an outstanding lesson on the Lord's Supper presented by Michael Wyatt. One illustration he shared with us was an illustration he learned from Roy Deaver. It is a tool to help us to concentrate on the Lord's Supper when partaking it.

Seven facts to remember:

- One Lord
- Two Thieves
- Three Crosses
- Four Parts of Jesus' garment
- Five Wounds
- Six Hours
- Seven Sayings

RON'S REMINDERS

Burying Our Chains in a Watery Grave ----Four Freedoms Found in Romans 6

In 1838, Jamaican slaves were freed. The day before their emancipation, they built a large mahogany coffin. In the coffin, they placed their chains, whips, handcuffs, iron collars, branding irons, and clothing. At the stroke of midnight, they lowered the coffin into a grave. Afterwards they sang the "Doxology."

This is a likeness of baptism. Sinners become dead to sin and are buried with Christ. Being free from sin, they are raised to walk in newness of life, leaving sin's chains behind in a watery grave.

Romans 6 teaches the following:

Freedom from the practice of sin. It is possible to live in sin (1 Corinthians 6:9-11; Colossians 3:5-7), but those dead to sin will no longer do so (Romans 6:1-2; 6:1-2, 14-15). Christians must not use the God-given liberty to indulge the flesh (Galatians 5:13).

Freedom from the power of sin. Those living in sin are under the dominion of Satan. Sin reigns in their bodies (Romans 6:12). Sin has dominion over them (6:14). They are enslaved by sin (6:16; John 8:31-36). The power of sin is death (Romans 5:20-21). The power of Jesus is life (Romans 6:9-11).

Freedom from the fruits of sin. Jesus said, "By their fruits you will know them" (Matthew 7:20). Paul contrasted the fruit of the Spirit with the works of the flesh (Galatians 5:19-23). Both fruits come out of the abundance of one's heart (Matthew 15:18-20). The fruit of sin is shame, and the end of it is death (Romans 6:21). The fruit of God is holiness, and the end is everlasting life (Romans 6:22).

Freedom from the penalty of sin. The wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23). All are guilty (Romans 3:9-10, 23). All can be pardoned (John 3:16). Thus freed, Christians stand fast in their freedom (Galatians 5:1).

The road map to freedom leads to a watery grave.

Christ is the only way to the Father (Romans 6:23; John 14:6; 10:7, 9). Those buried with Him by baptism can walk in newness of life (Romans 6:4; John 3:3, 5; 2 Corinthians 5:17). Those planted in the likeness of His death will be in the likeness of His resurrection (Romans 6:5). Obeying the form of doctrine frees from sin (Romans 6:17-18; 1 Peter 1:22; 2 Thessalonians 1:7-9).

"Therefore if the Son makes you free, you shall be free indeed." John 8:36
