ON THE HOME FRONT

Last week, the "hall of fame of faith" gained three additions. As one author phrased it, they graduated to glory. The first passing was Gary Colley, the preacher at Getwell from 2009 to 2019. Brother Colley was a faithful gospel preacher who was aided by his sweet wife Maggie. Our sympathy goes out to Ms. Maggie, Glenn, Sherry, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

The second passing was that of Hardeman Nichols. Brother Nichols was the son of beloved Gus Nichols. He along with his brothers were all named after gospel preachers. You can guess what preacher he was named for. Brother Nichols was a friend of Getwell and appeared on our Spiritual Sword lectureship. Our sympathy goes out to the family and friends of brother Nichols.

The third passing was one close to Stanley and me personally. Our aunt Martha Lawrence passed from this life to glory on Tuesday, September 27. She was a member of the Exchange Street congregation in Union City, Tennessee. She taught Bible class for thirty years and was at services every time the doors opened. She was an able and supportive helpmeet to her late husband Waylon Lawrence who was a faithful elder and gospel preacher. Her son Greg gave the eulogy and used a sermon from his dad using Hebrews 12 referring to a great cloud of witnesses urging us on. And now my aunt is part of that cloud urging her family to finish the race that is set before us. Our sympathy goes out to her family. I can only say that it was an encouragement to have known these three individuals. Thank God for the lives they lived for our Lord Jesus.
